2021-2022 Noncustodial Parent Statement Waiver Request

Your noncustodial parent is required to complete the application. We recognize that in some cases, it may be impossible to obtain noncustodial information. If you have no contact with your noncustodial parent, you may request to waive this requirement. See the steps below for next steps.

Submission of this request does not guarantee that a waiver will be approved. WashU may request additional information to review your waiver request. Please check the status of your request at financialaid.wustl.edu and click on Login to My FA Access.

Examples of situations where a waiver may be granted:
- Documented abuse situations involving you and your noncustodial parent.
- Legal orders that limit the noncustodial parent’s contact with you.
- No contact or support ever received from the noncustodial parent.

Examples of documents to support waiver requests:
- Court documents or legal orders, as available.
- Third-party documentation – preferably a written statement or letter from a counselor, social worker, teacher, or clergy who has first-hand knowledge about and can certify your situation. Statements from family members or attorneys are not accepted.

Instructions for submitting the WashU Noncustodial Waiver Request form:
- Print the form and complete it.
- Sign the completed form.
- Submit the signed copy, with all supporting documentation, to Washington University in St. Louis.
